Admission Criteria

To be matriculated into a program, applicants for admission must meet all of the following admission requirements:

1. Have graduated or will graduate from high school at the end of the current year, or have a General Educational Development (GED) certificate.
2. Have a minimum high school grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 as measured on a 4.0 scale, or a minimum score of 35 on each section and an average score of 45 for all five sections of the GED test.
3. Be accepted by the College's Committee on Recruitment, Admission, and Retention (RAR).

General Admission Policy

Admission to the College of Micronesia-FSM is based primarily upon evidence of the student's ability to profit from the educational programs of the college. The admissions policy is established by the Board of Regents and administered by the President of the College through the Committee on Recruitment, Admissions, and Retention (RAR). All records submitted by applicants become the property of the college. Admission is open at the beginning of both the fall and spring semesters.

for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) or the FAFSA renewal, and mail it to the college. Applicants should also file their FAFSA electronically at www.fafsa.ed.gov. Tool transcripts or GED scores are sent to the COM-FSM Office of Admissions, Records and Retention. High school seniors should submit a seven-semester transcript. College students should submit an official transcript from all colleges or universities previously attended.

Notification of Admission

Accepted students must meet all the admission requirements of their acceptance as soon as their acceptance is notified by the President upon recommendation of the Committee on RAR.

Admission Procedure

Accepted students notified of admission to the college must do the following:

1. Acceptance to COM-FSM is contingent upon Admission and Retention. If the Letter of Admission is not received by the deadline, the College will give the slot to another applicant.

2. Residence Halls, complete the application form, and return it with a $50.00 deposit to the address indicated. 3. Submit a Student Aid Report (SAR) upon receipt to the Financial Aid Office (FAO). 4. Return the Health Form to the Health Services Office. 5. Complete the COM-FSM State Campus Dean's Office form. Complimentary airfare tickets are provided to eligible students from Yap, Chuuk and Kosrae who have completed all of the above.
