December 16, 2013

The assessment questions were given out to the participating students, and after being tallied, this was the outcome.

Out of the participants among Residential Hall students, 50% students took and returned the survey forms.

- 47% of the students strongly agreed that the RHO social activity/picnic was organized and the set up was great.
- 43% of the students strongly agreed that the food prepared were enough for everyone
- 40% of the students strongly agreed that the games were fun and it involved everyone
- 43% of the students strongly agreed that they had great time interacting with other RHO students and relaxing after final exams
- 41% of the students strongly agreed that the activity promoted socialization and civic mindedness among students
- 42% of the students marked "very satisfying" as the overall level of satisfaction for the activity.

Based on numbers of remarkable feedbacks, and several recommendations for more activities and delicious snacks, I hope, along with my officers, that more activities will be supported and assisted by the administrators.

Darla Simina, RHO President
