The colored cells indicate either there was no course linked to an ISLO or the course is not being offered this semester.

In your electronic ISLO assessment package you will have a copy of the AAC&U Value Rubric (PDF) for the ISLO linked to you course, an assessment reporting sheet (excel), and the ISLO assessment directions (Word). Please take some time to review the documents and if you have any questions please contact the assessment coordinator.

Directions for reporting:

1. Record your assessment results in the Assessment Reporting Sheet (excel). Then email to assessment coordinator.
2. Add any additional qualitative data that may provide insight into the assessment results.
3. Provide a copy of the assessment assignment/ strategy that was use to assess the ISLO.
4. Provide a random selection of examples from your assessment assignment/strategy (report, essay, test, or project), removing the student's name and ID number (if included). Student examples can be submitted electronically or in hard copy.
5. Please submit Assessment Reporting Sheet and student examples at the same time.
