

College of Micronesia-FSM
 Department of Student Services
Registered Student Clubs and/or Organizations
 2007-2015

Student Club or Organization	Type of Club or Organization	Purpose (s)	Average Number of Members	Remarks
Brothers and Sisters in Christ (BASIC)	Religious	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To provide a place for learning, fellowship and encouragement to christian youth living on and off campus. ● To reach out to fellow students through ministries and bible studies. 	15	2010, and in currently ¹ inactive
Bright Young Techno Entrepreneur (BYTE)	Academic	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To assist students who major in the field of computer information systems (CIS) to successfully complete their education by conducting activities that would help struggling students, upgrade skills, initiate or enhance awareness of computing technologies or anything that would help the students in general. ● To assist in promoting COM-FSM as the recruiting ground for public and private sector employers interested in the recruitment of students who successfully completed their studies in the field of computer information systems. ● To establish a student internship program for CIS students in the public and private sector to enable students to develop real-world computing skills, and solid work ethic necessary in the work places. ● To create a scholarship foundation for CIS students who have served as members of this organization and are interested in pursuing bachelor's degree in computing or to any computer-related field. ● To assist in creating linkages from universities and colleges outside FSM that would smoothen transition of students who wants to pursue a bachelor's degree in computing on student's university or college of choice. ● To assist in creating linkages with former students of CIS program for the development of an alumni program. ● To seek advice and support of the faculty members of Business Division in any matter that will help further the purposes of this organization. ● To receive and accept contributions, gifts, and grants from any person, firm, association or any municipality, body politic, or governmental agency or authority for purpose of furthering the purposes of this organization. ● To engage in other related activities to support the purposes of this organization, the CIS program and the Business Division, in general. 	All students who are currently enrolled at COM-FSM and are pursuing degree in the field of computer information systems	2013 to present

Student Club or Organization	Type of Club or Organization	Purpose (s)	Average Number of Members	Remarks
Chi Alpha Christian Fellowship	Religious	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To establish a local branch of Chi Alpha, an international organization reaching students on college and university campus. The mission is three-fold: (1) upward — in fellowship with God; (2) inward — in fellowship with club members; and (3) outward — in fellowship to reach out to other students of the college and the community. 	20-25	2012 to present
Chuu-Chok Chuuk	Cultural and ethnic heritage	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To promote and maintain the integrity of the Chuukese culture. ● To network with other COM-FSM clubs to promote the mission of the college. ● To raise funds to support the Chuu-Chok mission. ● To develop partnership with other recognized clubs on campus or other local schools or community organizations for the purpose of promoting and maintaining the integrity of the Chuukese culture. 	65-80	2010 to present
Residence Hall Students Organization (RSO), formerly Dormitory Students Organization (DSO)	Academic, cultural and ethnic heritage, recreational	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To provide resident students opportunities to experience the communal life with discipline and to promote character formation under the circumstances suitable for academic pursuits. 	All students who reside in the college's residence halls for men and women	As RHO, 2012 to present
Future Famer's Club (FFC)	Academics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To and support the FFC organization, activities and agricultural activities on local, state and national levels. ● To promote greater knowledge of the agricultural industry and support education in agriculture. ● To promote and maintain an appreciation of the free enterprise system and to raise funds to be used as incentives for members of the club. ● To organize academic and social functions between club members and/or interested non-members. 	30	2012 to present
Fitness Club	Recreational	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To promote health and fitness options, information, and opportunities on campus. 	60-100	2012, and in currently ¹ inactive
Health Career Opportunity Program Students (HCOPS) Club	Academics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To promote HCOP program at the college to four year level to enable students to earn bachelor degree in health career. ● To assist students who major in the field of health career to successfully complete their education and be able to apply their knowledge and skills in the work places in the FSM ● To assist in promoting COM-FSM as the recruiting ground for public and private sector employers interested in the recruitment of students who successfully completed their studies in the field of health career. 	All HCOP students	2010 to present

Student Club or Organization	Type of Club or Organization	Purpose (s)	Average Number of Members	Remarks
Health Career Opportunity Program Students (HCOPS) Club ... continuation		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To establish a health career student internship program in the public and private sector to enable students to develop real-world computing skills in the work places. ● To create a scholarship foundation for HCOP students who have served as members of this organization and are interested in pursuing graduate studies in health related fields. ● To seek advice and support of the faculty members of Science Division in any matter that will help further the purposes of this organization. ● To receive and accept contributions, gifts, and grants from any person, firm, association or any municipality, body politic, or governmental agency or authority for purpose of furthering the purposes of this organization. ● To engage in other related activities to support the purposes of this organization.
Kosrae Student Organizations	Academics, cultural and ethnic heritage	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To present views of the members to the administration and faculty of COM-FSM. ● To report policies relating to students' conduct and behavior in the COM-FSM premises or in the community. ● To recommend needed improvements for policy, for both students (members and officers). ● To recommend needed changes of the organization's policies to members of the organization. 	56-70	2009 to present
Micronesian Marine Environmental Club (MMEC)	Academics, special interest	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To promote the importance of protecting and respecting both the marine and terrestrial environment in Micronesia. ● To encourage student and community understanding and awareness of environmental issues that occur and/or affect Micronesia and Micronesians. ● To convey the notion that individual and group involvement for environmental concerns can make a difference in local communities. ● To share ideas and concepts pertaining to environmental functions with both the college and the island community. ● To support and engage students in community service projects. ● To raise funds to cover club activities and eventually start a scholarship program. ● To organize academic and social functions between club members and/or interested nonmembers. 	15	2012 to present

Student Club or Organization	Type of Club or Organization	Purpose (s)	Average Number of Members	Remarks
Health Student Organization	Academics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To promote health programs at the college. ● To assist students who major in the fields of public health and nursing to successfully complete their education and be able to apply their knowledge and skills in the work places in the FSM ● To assist in promoting COM-FSM as the recruiting ground for public and private sector employers interested in the recruitment of students who successfully completed their studies in the fields of public health and nursing. ● To establish a public health/nursing students internship program in the public and private sector to enable students to develop real-world computing skills in the work places. ● To create a scholarship foundation for public health/nursing students who have served as members of this organization and are interested in pursuing graduate studies in health related fields. ● To seek advice and support of the faculty members of Health Science Division in any matter that will help further the purposes of this organization. ● To receive and accept contributions, gifts, and grants from any person, firm, association or any municipality, body politic, or governmental agency or authority for purpose of furthering the purposes of this organization. ● To engage in other related activities to support the purposes of this organization. 	All students who are currently enrolled at the college and are pursuing degree in the field of public health and nursing.	2010 to present
Nukuoro Kapingamarangi Organization (NUKAP)	Cultural and ethnic heritage, academics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To unity among members. ● To reseach, archive, and promote awareness about the history and culture of the Kapinamarangi and Nukuoro people. ● To develop educational program to enhance members' academic or vocational studies. ● To promote the mission of the college or work in partnership with other campus recognized clubs to do the same. ● To work in partnership with the Kapinga Nukuoro parents in support of students or other community social or educational groups or programs. 	36-50	2010 to present
Phi Thetta Kappa (PTK), Beta Omicron Upsilon Chapter	Academics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The purpose of Phi Theta Kappa shall be to recognize and encourage scholarship among two-year college students. To achieve this purpose, Phi Theta Kappa shall provide opportunity for the development of leadership and service, for an intellectual climate for exchange of ideas and ideals, for lively fellowship for scholars, and for stimulation of interest in continuing academic excellence. 	56	2010 to present

Student Club or Organization	Type of Club or Organization	Purpose (s)	Average Number of Members	Remarks
Pinglapese Mwokilese (PINGMWOK), formerly Pinglapese Student Union	Cultural and ethnic heritage, academics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To promote academic and social relationships between members of the union and the college community students. ● To promote students' awareness of the college's social and academic issues and other functions. ● To foster and encourage students to be proactive in extracurricular activities both at the college community and the general community. ● To raise funds to be used as incentives for the members of the union. ● To support and engage students in service projects. ● To emphasize on students' role at the college community in relation to other student associations. 	50	2007 to present
COM-FSM Soccer Club	Recreation, special interest	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To develop individual players, organize team competition, develop teams that are competitive in the college, state regions and at the national level, provide education and assistance to the public regarding the sports of soccer club. 	30	2011 to present
Social Science Club	Academics, social and political action	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To promote the Micronesian Studies program, especially focusing on the political, economic, and social concepts and issues that exist in Micronesia. ● To encourage citizen participation in and enhance the students' awareness of how governments operate at the national, state and local levels. ● To emphasize how individual involvement can make a difference in the local communities. ● To allow students to think critically about geographical, historical, cultural, and practical knowledge of the structure and function of the FSM government and social issues in Micronesia. ● To experience the sharing of ideas and concepts pertaining to government function with students in the college community and the general community. ● To support and engage students in service projects. ● To raise funds to be used as incentives for members of the club. ● To organize academic and social functions between clubs members and/or interested non-members. 	20-50	2008 to present
Yapese Student Organization (YSO), a.k.a. Yap State Organization	Cultural and ethnic heritage, academics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To organize members who are enrolled at COM-FSM National and Pohnpei Campuses. ● To raise funds to support the mission of YSO and other COM-FSM activities. ● To promote unity among YSO members and other organizations at COM-FSM. ● To serve as role model to other organizations on college campus. 	100-108	2008 to present

Student Club or Organization	Type of Club or Organization	Purpose (s)	Average Number of Members	Remarks
Young Executives Society (YES)	Academics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To promote business administration programs at the College of Micronesia-FSM to four-year level to enable students to earn bachelor degrees in business administration. ● To assist students who major in the field of business administration to successfully complete their education and be able to apply their knowledge and skills in the workplace in FSM. ● To promote COM-FSM as a recruiting ground for public and private sector employers interested in the recruitment of students who successfully completed their studies in the field of business administration. ● To establish a business students internship program in the public and private sector to enable students to develop skills necessary in the work places. ● To create a scholarship foundation for business major students who have served as members of this organization and are interested in pursuing bachelor's degree in computing or to any computer-related field. ● To seek advice and support of the faculty members of Business Division in any matter that will help further the purposes of this organization. ● To receive and accept contributions, gifts, and grants from any person, firm, association or any municipality, body politic, or governmental agency or authority for purpose of furthering the purposes of this organization. ● To engage in other related activities to support the purposes of this organization. 	All business administration major students including students in the third-year programs in general business and accounting	2012 to present
Pohnpei Student Organization, a.k.a. , Pohnpei National Association	Cultural and ethnic heritage, academics, social, and political action	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To encourage citizen participation in and enhance the students awareness of how the governments operate at the national, state and local levels. ● To emphasize how individual involvement can make a difference in the local communities. ● To allow students to think critically about geographical, historical, cultural, and practical knowledge of the structure and function of the FSM government and social issues in Micronesia. ● To experience the sharing of ideas and concepts pertaining to government function with students in the college community and the general community. ● To support and engage students in service projects. ● To raise funds to be used as incentives for members of the organization. ● To organize academic and social functions between the organization members and/or interested non-members. 	200	2007 to present

Student Club or Organization	Type of Club or Organization	Purpose (s)	Average Number of Members	Remarks
Palikr Surf Society	Recreational	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To promote the surfing. ● To encourage the physical and mental well being of our members. ● To convey to our members an appreciation of the resources on Pohnpei, e.g., the world class waves. ● To share ideas and attitudes pertaining to a healthy lifestyle. ● To support and engage members in an athletic endeavor. ● To raise funds to cover club activities. ● To organize social functions between club members. ● To promote Micronesians to surf their own waters. 	30	2008, and in currently ¹ inactive
Student Body Association (SBA)	Cultural and ethnic heritage, academics, social, and political action	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To present the views of the students to the administration and faculty of the college. ● To recommend policies relating to student conduct and behavior. ● To recommend need improvements for policy, student and staff jointly. ● To make recommended changes in student related services 	All students	1993 to present
COM-FSM Volleyball Club	Recreational	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To develop individual players; develop teams that are competitive in the heart; organize team competition; and provide education and assistance to the public regarding the sport of volleyball. 	Club maintains an open organization, i.e., COM-FSM students, clubs and alumni	2011, and in currently ¹ inactive
COM-FSM CARP Club (CCC)	Social, and political action	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The purpose of the CCC shall include, but not limited to providing an opportunity for Micronesians youth at the College of Micronesia-FSM to join with other youths or college students locally and around the world for activities that promote a drug-free and moral lifestyle, encourage students to be high achievers, plan for happiness in their future facilities and success in their career choices. ● CCC will also encourage students to preserve the best aspects of their local culture and values. 	Unknown	2008, and in currently ¹ inactive
Fine Arts Club	Special interest	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To promote art, music, drama, media and creative writing on campus and the community. ● To network with other COM-FSM state campuses on art, music, drama, media, and creative writing related matters. ● To sponsor visiting artists. ● To raise funds to support the Fine Arts club mission. ● To promote COM-FSM mission. ● To develop partnership with other recognized clubs on campus or other local schools or community organizations for the purpose of promoting art, music, drama, media and creative writing. 	12	2007, and in currently ¹ inactive

Student Club or Organization	Type of Club or Organization	Purpose (s)	Average Number of Members	Remarks
Education BA Club	Career related, academics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To promote the area of teaching profession among young people on campus and the community. ● To provide opportunities for students on campus and in the community to cultivate a strong commitment to the teaching profession. ● To proactively recruit students into the partnership BA, the third year certificates of achievement in Teacher Preparation-Elementary and Special Education programs. ● To create a “learning community” cohort of future teachers to foster and create a sense of team support and commitment to becoming teachers. ● To raise funds to support the mission of the Education BA club. ● To develop partnership with other recognized clubs on campus in advancing the mission of the college in the FSM. ● To promote professionalism on campus. ● To serve as role models for fellow students on campus. 	Open to all currently enrolled students in the partnership BA and the Third-Year certificate of achievement in Education programs.	2007, and in currently ¹ inactive
Fox-PNI/COM	Academics, social, and political action	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To promote academic and social relationships between members of the organization and college community students. ● To promote student awareness of social and academic issues and other functions. ● To encourage students to be active in extra curricular activities within the institution and externally, including ant local or national issues. 	60	2013 to present
Delta 9	Cultural and ethnic heritage, social, and political action, special interest	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To enlighten the people on the dangers of pharmaceutical drugs and spreading awareness of safer cultural alternatives. 	30	2013 to present
Micro-Japan Club	Special interest	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● To promote awareness of the historical ties between the two island nations — Micronesia and Japan. ● To provide assistance especially in facilitating tours for Japanese exchange students or visitors. 	16	2013 to present

¹As of Fall 2015 semester