SUBJECT : Results of Satisfaction Surveys on YES!-
Sponsored Farewell Dinner Banquet for Graduating Business Administration Students held on May 13, 2014

We are pleased to report that YES! once again successfully hosted another dinner banquet for outgoing Business Administration students on Tuesday, May 13, 2014 at the Kasehlie Diner in Nett.

The original sign up sheet tallied 35 attendees but the actual count of participants that showed up were 19 students and 5 faculty members. The faculty that joined us were Mr. Joe Felix, Jr., Mr. Rafael Pulmano together with his wife, Mr. Timothy Mamangon and Mr. Edper Castro.

The event started off with welcoming remarks by the Acting President, Phyllis Ching, followed by an inspirational talk to the students by Chairperson of the Division, Mr. Felix. Mr. Pulmano also added a few words of encouragement and farewell to the upcoming graduates.

Three of the graduates stood up and expressed their thanks for everybody coming to the event and also thanked the instructors for their tremendous support and help. A blessing for the meal followed given by Mr. Tim Mamangon and then graduates got up to lead the line to the buffet. A total of 5 graduates were able to join us for the dinner namely: Mr. Damien Mailbung, Ms. LoryAnn Luey, Mr. Raxon Nennis, Ms. Cynthia Sailas and Mr. Rodney Fredrick.

After the meal ended there were some other additional remarks given by Mr. Mamangon and Mr. Pulmano. Mr. Mamangon will be assisting YES! in building a Facebook page for the organization. Emails were also collected from all of the graduates so that communication and bonds with these outgoing students can remain intact in the future. Finally, students and faculty posed for a group pictorial.

Survey forms were distributed to the students in attendance to fill out. The results from the tabulated surveys are as follows:
